

2019 Annual Conference

Mark your calendars —

October 4 & 5, 2019

You won't want to miss this upcoming conference which is presented through a partnership between the BC Pediatric Society and the BC Children's Hospital, Division of Pediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition.

Through lectures and small group workshops, day one of the conference will explore current issues in contemporary pediatrics with an emphasis on up-to-date evidence and practical management approaches. Day two will address challenges and controversies in pediatric gastroenterology and nutrition, providing the most current information from experts in the field.
