Are you interested in building an office-based pediatrics practice in Squamish, BC? Come join our team at Squamish Pediatrics! Our goal is to provide accessible and family-centered medical and developmental care for children and teenagers in the Sea to Sky Corridor. We are lucky to closely collaborate with allied health, primary care and school team members to provide team-based care for complex patients. To meet the demand for pediatric care in our rapidly-growing community, we are currently recruiting one or two general pediatricians to each provide 2-3 outpatient clinics per week. As we recruit more pediatricians and increase our capacity, our future goals include expanding our practice to provide outreach clinics, hospital support at Squamish General Hospital and clinics at the newly-opened Foundry to improve mental health care. Living and working in Squamish provides a great work-life balance, with countless recreation opportunities and the chance to join a welcoming, supportive medical community. – Dr. Jennifer Carlisle, Dr. Rebecca Sherlock, Dr. Erin Coates
