

The following materials may be helpful in preparing parents for a successful conversation with their child's teacher or other educational professionals with respect to developing friendships.

1. Some children face a variety of challenges in developing positive social skills including the ability to make friends. This brochure helps you prepare parents for a successful conversation with their child's teacher or other educational professional. Social Relationships & Friendships Brochure.
2. An informal handout/tip sheet to provide help to parents of children with significant social/emotional challenges. Social Relationships & Friendships Handout