

BC PEDIATRIC SOCIETY

DR. PARMINDER SINGH AWARD OF DISTINCTION

The relationship between community and hospital-based pediatricians and sub-specialists plays a significant role in the health outcomes of BC children and youth.

Each year, the BC Pediatric Society (BCPS), in co-operation with the BC Children's Hospital Foundation (BCCHF), is pleased to present the Dr. Parminder Singh Award of Distinction to recognize the value of this interrelationship.

CRITERIA FOR CONSIDERATION OF NOMINATION FOR THE AWARD

The award is intended to be an annual event recognizing current work, recent work, or a lifetime of accumulative work of a staff member or pediatrician, pediatric group or department at BCCH who has been helpful to the community pediatricians by:

Adopting pattern of providing timely advice on phone and other means;

- Providing education to the community;
- Providing resource services, such as an onsite audit in community setting;
- Providing timely consults;
- Mentoring;
- Providing timely patient transfers, educational feedback on transfer; and

Providing timely admissions of complex patients, and feedback on evaluation to facilitate patient being maintained by local pediatrician in the community
